

Cal-SAFE (California School Age Families Education Program)

Implemented in the Fall of 2000, Adera Cal-SAFE (California School Age Families Education) provides education and support services assisting pregnant and parenting students to continue their education.

Cal-SAFE also reaches out to pregnant teenagers who have dropped out of school due to pregnancy or other life issues, encouraging and facilitating their return to school.

Education and Services

- Academic program
- Individualized learning plans
- Preparation for childbirth and parenting
- Connection with health and social services
- Family education and counseling
- Career and vocational guidance
- Transition to community college
- Food and nutrition
- Transportation assistance
- Bilingual child care
- Supportive and positive environment

Requirements for Participation

- Attendance and participation in child development, parenting and practicum classes
- Written agreement to all Child Center regulations
- Agreement to follow Alternative Education Programs student code of conduct
- Steady progress toward high school graduation

Adera Cal-SAFE/Amarosa
Academy
3261 Dutton Avenue
Santa Rosa, CA 95407

The Adera Cal-SAFE program (California School Age Families Education) is a project of the Sonoma County Office of Education, School & Community Services Department.

Department Director:
Georgia Ioakimedes

PROGRAM INFORMATION:
(707) 524-2885

Fax:
(707) 524-2889

Adera—East African word meaning "life giver"

Adera Cal-SAFE (California School Age Families Education)
Alternative Education-Student Support Services
Sonoma County Office of Education
5340 Skylane Boulevard
Santa Rosa, CA 95403-8108

Cal-SAFE (California School Age Families Education)

The mission of Adera Cal-SAFE is to provide a comprehensive program of education and services fostering healthy pregnancy, positive parenting, and quality child care for teen parents and their children in an environment that invites and supports school success, including transition to career and/or higher education.

Sonoma County Office of Education