Multilingual Learner Community of Practice for High School Counselors

Session One:
April 23, 2024
9:30 - 11:00 AM
Virtual

Session One Topic:
Supporting Pathways to Graduation for Newcomer Multilingual Students via AB2121 & SB532 Legislation

Future dates and topics for 24-25 TBD

High School Counselors are some of the very first educators that Multilingual Learners (MLs) encounter when they enroll in our schools. Counselors play an important role in ensuring that MLs feel welcomed, get connected with the appropriate programs and supports, are enrolled in appropriate ELD, and so much more!

This virtual Community of Practice will provide an opportunity for high school counselors across the state to come together to learn about topics specific to effectively supporting MLs and share best practices.

AUDIENCE

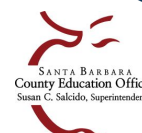

High School
Counselors, TOSAs, EL
Specialists, School
Administrators
