Project SERV

The School Emergency Response to Violence (Project SERV) grant is dedicated federal funding used to provide education-related services to LEAs in which the learning environment was disrupted due to a traumatic crisis

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Project SERV

- Typically this grant is awarded on an LEA or school-level basis
- After the October wildfires, the U.S. Department of Education (ED) reached out to the California Department of Education (CDE) and provided the opportunity of applying for a larger amount of funding as a state

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Project SERV

- Grants were distributed to New York after Hurricane Sandy and Louisiana after the hurricanes and flooding in 2016

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Application Process

- LEAs complete Needs Assessment for Project SERV by December 1, 2017

<https://www.cde.ca.gov/ls/fa/sf/statewidewildfires2017.asp>

- CDE reviews Needs Assessment for allowable expenses
- ED reviews Needs Assessment for allowable expenses

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Application Process

- ED makes a funding determination to the CDE based on LEA Needs Assessments
- Once funding approved LEAs may submit reimbursement requests to the CDE

Project SERV

- Funds are intended to provide education-related services to LEAs in which the learning environment was disrupted due to a traumatic crisis
- All costs must be in addition to costs the LEA would have incurred in the absence of the October 2017 wildfires

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Allowable Expenses

Activities and costs are considered allowable if they:

- Are directly related to the impact of the October 2017 wildfires
- Are considered necessary to restore the learning environment
- Cannot be funded by any other recovery funding or insurance reimbursement

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Allowable Expenses

Types of services allowable under Project SERV:

- Targeted mental health assessments, referrals and services
- Overtime for teachers, counselors, law enforcement, security officers, and other staff

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Allowable Expenses

- Substitute teachers
- Labor costs needed to repair the learning environment
- Costs to transport students to temporary facilities or from temporary housing
- Costs to operate a school at an alternative site

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Allowable Expenses

- The list of allowable expenses is not meant to be exhaustive
- LEAs may consider adding other expenses that they consider reasonable and necessary to repairing the learning environment
- Costs may be considered if they were incurred on or after October 2017

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Unallowable expenses

Types of services that are not considered allowable under Project SERV guidelines:

Equitable Funding

- LEAs receiving funds under Project SERV must provide for equitable participating by private school students and teachers, including engaging in timely and meaningful consultation with appropriate private school officials

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Equitable Funding

- Similar to the consultation required by Title I for nonpublic schools, the purpose of the consultation is to assess needs and provide services from the resources allocated by this grant
- No cash is to be distributed to private schools but paid for by the school district may be offered
