

iPad Symposium • April 10, 2013 • Sonoma COE

Time	Topic	Room
1:00-1:50	iPads for Teaching and Learning- Kathy Schrock Perspectives on 21st century teaching and learning with iPads; iPad apps that target each cognitive level of Bloom's Revised Taxonomy (2000). Formative and summative assessment utilizing the iPad. Synchronous and asynchronous collaboration	Redwood C
2:00-2:25	Recording and Editing Audio on the iPad – Kathy Schrock Powerful iPad recording and editing abilities - apps and classroom lesson ideas.	Redwood C
	iPad for All- Debra Wilcox Built-in features on iPad that accommodate learning disabilities and improve productivity and academic performance. New apps for the writing process: graphic organizers, word prediction apps with auditory supports, etc.	Oak Room D
	iBooks: New Media for Learning and Sharing- Joan Easterday iBook authoring tools; Samples of digital textbooks she and others have made in Project LEAD using iBooksAuthor.	Oak Room E
	iPad Clinic – James Brennan Have questions about technical aspects of your iPad? Apple Systems Engineer, James Brennan has answers.	Redwood B
2:30-2:55	Apps for sharing files between iPads- Kathy Schrock Learn effective strategies for managing iPad files. Learn about apps that allow for easy sharing among all your electronic devices.	Redwood C
	Creating Music with the iPad- Dave Chosa Your iPad has amazing musical abilities! Participants will have hands-on opportunities to be part of an iPad 'jam-session'.	Redwood A
	Guided Tour of iTunesU- James Brennan Learn about iTunesU for K-12 educators. Learn how you can integrate this valuable resource with your students.	Oak Room D
	iPads in the Primary Classroom- Pamela Rubel Obtain management ideas and essential apps from the perspective of a kindergarten teacher who runs a 1-1 program.	Oak Room E
	iPad Clinic – Dan Exelby Have questions about technical aspects of your iPad? SCOE IT Specialist Dan Exelby has answers.	Redwood B
3:00- 3:25	Apps for creating digital stories on the iPad- Kathy Schrock Learn about apps that invite creativity and communication through story telling.	Redwood C
	Lessons Learned from 6th Grade Charter School- Danna Rocca & Danny Bever Find out about key elements of a successful one to one iPad program now in its second year.	Oak Room D
	Calistoga Cross Age Tutoring Program- Lindsay Olsen & Martha McCoy Calistoga Elementary teachers share how they use iPads in a cross age tutoring program.	Oak Room E
	iPad Clinic – Dan Exelby Have questions about technical aspects of your iPad? SCOE IT Specialist Dan Exelby has answers.	Redwood B
3:30-3:45	Evaluation and Raffle	Board Room