

FINANCIAL SAFETY

Created by the Predator Awareness Task Force

Training Objectives:

- Identify what financial safety is
- Identify who you can tell if you have been abused
- Identify ways to keep your money safe

Presentation Outline:

- * What is Financial Safety?
- * Why do you need to know about Financial Safety?
- * What does Financial Pressure look like?
- * What does Financial Pressure sound like?
- * Who might try to Financially Pressure us?
- * What can you do to be Financially Safe?
- * What can you do if someone Financially Pressures you?
- * What are some good places to keep your $$$ safe?
- * What did we learn today?

Recommended Materials:

- PowerPoint presentation
- Computer
- Projector
- Screen
- Sample of junk mail (optional)
- Copies of “What can you do if someone calls you?” handout
- “No Soliciting” signs, one as a sample or multiples to give away (optional)
- Copies of “People You Trust” handout
- Copies of “How do I get on the Do Not Call list?” handout
- Sample of a blank check (optional)
- Copies of “Tips to Help Protect Your Money” handout
- Copies of Evaluation/Feedback form (Participant and Instructor)

This curriculum typically takes about 1-1.5 hours to present, depending on length of discussions.

The Predator Awareness Task Force is a project sponsored by:

